Verse: John 8:31-32

If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

Thought:

Truth is not something we know, it is something we live. Jesus reminds us that we must not only know his teaching, but also obey it. However, obedience is one of the proofs of our discipleship and doorway to freedom and truth.

Prayer:

Father, forgive me for taking obedience to your will so lightly. Sometimes your way seems restrictive and hard. However, dear Father, deep in my heart I do genuinely believe that your will is a blessing and not a hindrance. Use me to help others find joy in obeying you, too. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

Latest Update From the Elders:
As we begin to resume some traditions from before the pandemic, here is the latest:

- Cookouts are planned for the 2nd Sundays in August, September and October; bring a side or dessert. Additionally, potluck lunches are now planned for the months of November and December.
- Pizza before 1st Wednesday singings is planned beginning in August; we will eat at 6:30
- We will continue the method we currently are using to commune, as well as giving, through the end of 2021, and will reevaluate at that time
- Food may now again be served at the building by groups who reserve it
- The two water fountains in the foyer are back open for use.

Keep Looking Up

The pressure's on, the memory's gone.
The kids have wrecked the car.
Your power's off, you've got a cough.
You wonder where you are.

The cookies burned, the stomach's turned.
There's dog dew on the floor.
It's - "hold your plate - the supper's late"
As grace goes out the door.

The Preacher called, the baby bawled,
The bath tub over-ran.
The gold-fish died, the TV fried.
The fat has hit the fan.

When times are tough and roads are rough,
And things are out of whack;
Just give the Savior all the stuff.
He'll pick up all the slack.

For if the Son shall set you free,
You shall be free, indeed.
There's Joy and Peace, eternally.
He'll meet your every need.

So, when you're feeling down and out,
Let Jesus fill your cup.
He knows what you are all about.
So, Just Keep Looking Up !!!

that led him to Christ. And because he believed, he was strengthened by hope.

And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in paradise. Luke 23:43, KJV

You know what I love most about that? Those two little words, "with me." We're not in the valley alone, and we're not going to heaven alone.
He was with David when he was running from Saul. He was with Moses when he crossed the Red Sea. He was with Joseph in prison. He was with Esther in The Palace of Shushan. He was with Hagar in the wilderness. And He'll be with us when we finally go home.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he lead-

Walking With God In The Valley

Reading Luke Chapter 6, I come to verse 20. And just like the multitude that pressed close to see and to hear, I open my ears to God's Word.

And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. (Luke 6:20-22, KJV)

With that I'm reminded of the days that brought me down to my knees. The days when I desperately sought Him for help. The weeks when I prayed without ceasing hoping for an end to our worry and pain. The months that we mourned. The years that we struggled just to get by.

We all have mountain-top days, but I've come to find that the more time I spend in the valley, the more I'm reminded to lean. For it's in those dark times of weakness that I learn to rely on His wisdom and strength.

Remember the thief on the cross? His weakest moment was the very thing
